

The Woodbridge Ferris Early College Program at Rockford High School

The Woodbridge Ferris Early College Program at Rockford High School is a results of a collaboration between Ferris State University and Rockford High School. This partnership is the first in Michigan between a high school and four-year university which allows students to enroll in university courses and earn general education credit through concurrent enrollment at a high school.

2014-15 Course Offerings

Course Number	Title	Credit Hours	Semester Offered
MATH 230	Analytical Geometry-Calculus 2	4	Fall 2014
ENGL 150	English 1	3	Spring 2015
LITR 150	Introduction to Literature	3	Spring 2015
MATH 220	Analytical Geometry-Calculus 1	4	Spring 2015
MATH 320	Analytical Geometry-Calculus 3	4	Spring 2015

For more information about the Woodbridge Ferris Early College Program, please email woodbridgepromise@ferris.edu.

